

|              |  |
|--------------|--|
| Name:        | Nine-spotted Ladybug                                 |
| Description: | Elytra are yellow, orange, or red with 9 black spots |
| Range:       | North America except the Southwest                   |
| Habitat:     | Meadows, gardens, fields                             |
| Food:        | Aphids, mites, small insects                         |

|              |   |
|--------------|---|
| Name:        | Carpenter Ant                                       |
| Description: | Black, long antennae, workers small and queen large |
| Range:       | Quebec to Florida, west to Texas                    |
| Habitat:     | Deadwood of trees, houses, poles                    |
| Food:        | Small insects, sugar, juices                        |

|              |  |
|--------------|--|
| Name:        | Monarch Butterfly                      |
| Description: | Brownish orange wings with white spots |
| Range:       | North America and Mexico               |
| Habitat:     | Meadows, fields where milkweed grows   |
| Food:        | Milkweed, flower buds, milky juices    |

|              |  |
|--------------|--|
| Name:        | Green Darner Dragonfly                               |
| Description: | Green thorax, abdomen blue or gray, long clear wings |
| Range:       | North America  |
| Habitat:     | Open areas around ponds or shallow streams           |
| Food:        | Flying insects such as mosquitoes and caddisflies    |

|              |   |
|--------------|---|
| Name:        | Lubber Grasshopper  |
| Description: | Brown, green, or black with small hind wings and long hind legs |
| Range:       | Northern United States  |
| Habitat:     | Fields or open spaces   |
| Food:        | Vegetation  |

|              |   |
|--------------|---|
| Name:        | Dogday Harvest Cicada                   |
| Description: | Black with green colorings, clear wings |
| Range:       | Northeastern United States              |
| Habitat:     | Woods with conifer trees                |
| Food:        | Adults do not eat                       |

|              |  |
|--------------|--|
| Name:        | Deer Fly   |
| Description: | Black with yellow or green marks, bright green eyes      |
| Range:       | North America  |
| Habitat:     | Forests or meadows near water                            |
| Food:        | Male drinks plant nectars and female drinks mammal blood |

|              |  |
|--------------|--|
| Name:        | Flat-Headed Mayfly                               |
| Description: | Clear wings, Reddish brown with 2 tail filaments |
| Range:       | North America                                    |
| Habitat:     | Near streams and rivers                          |
| Food:        | Adults do not eat                                |

|              |  |
|--------------|--|
| Name:        | European Praying Mantis                    |
| Description: | Green or tan, long body with long forelegs |
| Range:       | Eastern United States                      |
| Habitat:     | Meadows                                    |
| Food:        | Insects                                    |

|              |   |
|--------------|---|
| Name:        | Northern Case Maker Caddisfly                               |
| Description: | Body and wings light brown or tan with darker brown patches |
| Range:       | North America   |
| Habitat:     | Near freshwater ponds                                       |
| Food:        | Adults do not eat   |